

2010 Recipients

Dr. Deborah Mitton Award

Jack Li

Graduating from Saint John High School, Jack plans on attending Queen's University in the hopes of one day becoming a healthcare professional. A volunteer with the Regional's "escort" services, library cart and hand washing services since the fall of 2008.

Jack also demonstrates scholastic excellence with his success in his high school's IB and AP programmes. His exemplary extracurricular involvement is reflected in his commitment to his schools' swim, badminton, rowing and debate teams.

He is also active with the Lancaster Minor Hockey League, Job Fest, District 8 Senior Band, French Language Camp at U de M, Summer Explore French Language Camp at Universite Laval and with the National, Regional and Provincial competitions by Canadian Parents for French.

Peggy Bulmer Award

Rosalinda Kan

Rosalinda is a student at UNB in Fredericton, completing her first year in the Bachelor of Science Program with the hope of pursuing a career in health care. She has demonstrated dedication to scholastic excellence and extra-curricular and community involvement.

An IB Diploma Graduate, she is involved in UNB Charole and UNB String Symphony at UNBF. She has been an enthusiastic volunteer at the Regional, Our Lady of Assumption Parish and Dr. Everett Chalmers Hospital.

She has maintained her academic and community dedications while working at the YMCA-YWCA, the Canada Games Aquatics Center, and as a Video Editor for the UNBF branch of the Center for Excellence in Learning and Teaching.

Teresa Casey Award

Si Wook Kim

Graduating from Saint John High School, Si Wook plans on attending university in the fall. Volunteering at the Gift Shop and as an escort at the Regional, he was a recipient of the Regional's Volunteer Award in 2008.

He has also volunteered as an Alter Server at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception and was named "Volunteer of the Year" by his school.

A person who values academic excellence, he is active with his school's ski team, Junior Achievement, the Army Cadets, the Summer Explore French Language Camp at the Universite Laval and the Summer French Camp at U de M, all the while holding down a part-time job as a cashier.